VOL. II. NO. 190.

CHICAGO, WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 4, 1896.

PRICE, 5 CTS

MARIE WOODLAND'S GOOD WIN.

The track was heavy and it rained nearly all the afternoon yesterday at Ideal Park. The condition of the track caused many owners to scratch their horses, and the nine furlong race was declared off.

The racing despite the bad conditions was good. Hands Off and Sligo had a hard fight and furnished an exciting finish in the first race. Uncle Simon, Nairete and Provident were fighting it out in the second, and Marie Woodlands won the closing event in a sensational way.

Sligo was the natural favorite for the opening event. There was a heavy play on Little Eye, his price went back to 18 to 5. Sligo got off running and looked all over a winner on the stretch turn, but there Hands Off, a 25 to 1 shot, challenged him and in a ding dong finish won by a narrow margin.

The ring was flooded with Uncle Simon money to win the two-year-old race and the Inspector B—Pansy Blossom youngster was backed from 6 to 1 down to 2 to 1. He was full of speed and going the first half at a merry clip with Easter Eve stood the drive on the end and staggered home in front of Nairete and Provident. The latter was interfered with right on the end when she was coming strong and looked to have a winning chance.

Marie Woodland's sensational win surprised her owner and everyone else. She propped at the start and was left ten lengths behind the field. Her backers gave up all hope when they saw her passing the half mile ground, but Dorsey picked his way carefully and overhauling the tired lot in the stretch went on about his business and won galloping.

The third race was scratched all to pieces leaving Uncas a soft thing, and he won as he should in a big romp.

The five and one-half furlong substitute race was won by Walkover who was backed from 6 to 5 to 7 to 10.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

W. C. Daly has purchased of E. Peters the bay colt Rifer, 2, by Maxim—Rosa B, by Norfolk.

Tom Murphy, Tom Ryan's good boy this year has signed to ride for Brewer Schorr next season.

John Huffman will have a stable of thirty or forty horses to race next season and Eddie Jones as his first jockey.

Jockey Charlie Reiff will ride at New Orleans this winter for either Jackie Marklein or Jay Harder of the Lilly Meade Stable.

Catarrhal fever wrecked the Charter Oak Stable this year. It made Linda a sulker, killed Jilsey and left Sumo a sulker and ruined Utopia.

John Huffman leads the Latonia winning owners with some $4,500 in spoils and Thorpe with 27 and Scherrer with 22 wins are at the head of the list of riders.

Swipes II, chestnut filly, 3, by Onondaga—Bessie Hinckley, who had her pastern broken recently, was destroyed October 27. She was suffering intensely and all hope of her recovery was abandoned.

F F V, bay colt, 2, by Audrian—Tara Blackburn, the property of T. H. Tarr, has been retired for the season. If he winters well he will no doubt be a prominent factor in the three-year-old division next season.

John F. Phillips has bought of the Laurette Stable the chestnut filly Forget, 3, by Exile—Forever. The entries of the Laurette Stable were refused some time ago, and the decision still stands in the East against Forget.

During the Pimlico meeting Col. R. W. Simmons will be the sole judge to place the horses. W. H. Jasper will be Clerk of Scales, Clarence McDowell will represent the Jockey Club as Steward, and W. L. Powers as Secretary.

W. W. Darden, who bought and owned Algol this year, will race a dozen horses next season as W. W. Darden & Co. The Co. is Brewer Schorr, whose interest is represented by one half of Algol, bought from Caesar Weatherford.

J. Naglee Burke, the owner of Crescendo, Dura, Bellicoso and other good horses, has secured the racing qualities of Cassandra, by Flambeau—Charm, and Rosormonde, by Ormonde—Fairy Rose, now at the Palo Alto Stock Farm and owned by Mrs. Leland Stanford.

A jockey club was recently organized at Fort Erie, Canada, across the river from Buffalo, and work will begin at an early day on the track and buildings. It is expected that racing will begin there in June next. The charter gives the privilege of bookmaking and poolselling, and has been received by the secretary. The capital stock of the club will be $225,000, and the officers have been elected as follows: John Hood, proprietor of the Tift House, Buffalo, President; Hon. W. M. German, Welland, Ont., First Vice President; C. E. Norris, Buffalo, Second Vice President; E. O. Oviatt, Buffalo, Secretary and Treasurer.

†By Mr. Pickwick.
Winner—Ch. f. 4, by Hanover—Glacis.
Post 1 minute. Start good. It was a long hard drive between the first two and won only in the last jump; third and fourth were also under punishment. Sligo got a running start. He seemed to be winning easily on stretch turn and if boy had sat still he would have won. Hands Off was very tired. Boy rode her well. Little Eye was not in motion at start and was cut off on the turn. She ran a good race. So did Tonica, considering the ride she got. Sister Florence was interfered with shortly after start, and also on far turn. Demirep, as usual, showed some speed, but tired early.

Scratched—Social Smith, 99; Roger B, 102.
Overweights—Little Eye, 2 pounds; Demirep, 5; Heretic, 1½; Headlight, 4½.

Winner—B. c. by Inspector B—Pansy Blossom.
Post 3 minutes. Start good. The first three were driving hard, and staggering. Easter Eve and Uncle Simon set a terrific pace. It killed Easter Eve, but Simon hung on gamely. Caywood laid away a bit too long with Provident. The filly was coming strong on the end, but was obliged to pull up right on the wire, being shut off by Nairete. Uncle Simon bumped the latter, but not enough to cause a disqualification. Squan had an easy race. He's a fair colt. Theresa H was in her own way. She dislikes mud.

Post 3 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second driving hard; third with something left on the end. Uncas was at home in the going and simply galloped all the way. Jack of Spades ran a good race. He wanted to sulk on the far turn, but decided to run after boy applied the whip liberally. Diggs did not like the going and boy never urged him much. Watch him. Glenoid seemed to sulk in the stretch.
